SUBJ: Administration of Laws Relating to Laborers and Materialmen by the Department of Labor, and Impact Thereof on Security Interests and Contracting Activities of CIA

" * * * recent memoranda from the respective offices pose the basic problem of revealing Agency interest, considered to be classified, in the procurement of supplies and equipment and in geographical areas and project sites through the award and negotiation of construction contracts. The exposure of interest ordinarily occurs upon the submission of administrative reports and data to the Department of Labor * * *"

"Insofar as this memorandum is concerned, the rules and regulations require the submission of reports to the Department of Labor and posting a copy of the stipulations of the act in a prominent and readily accessible place at the site of the contract work."

"Where security considerations have been paramount, it has been the practice of CIA to comply with the above acts insofar as was practicable under the circumstances of each case. * * *
